

Applications

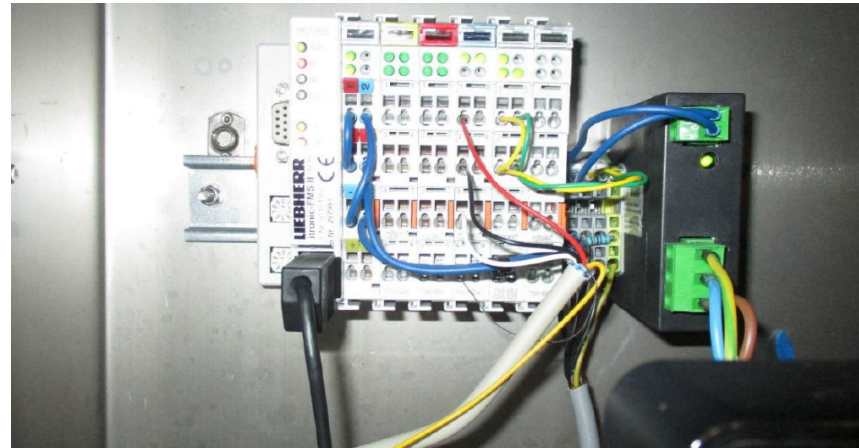

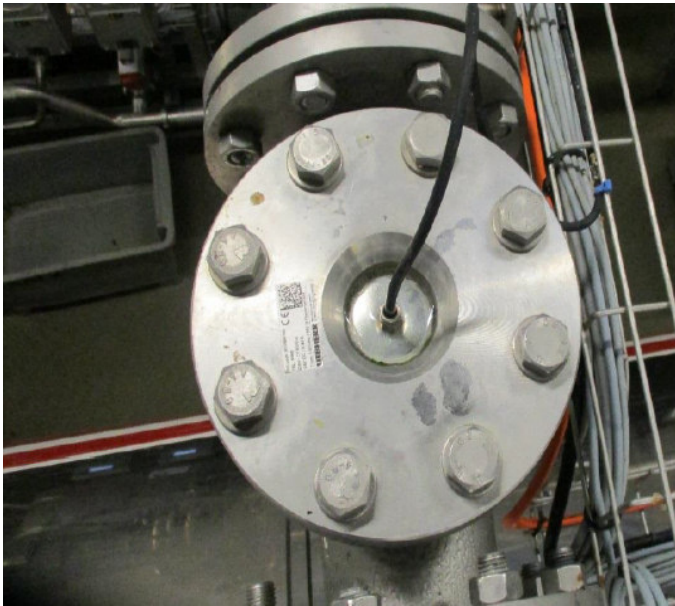

Flange application for emulsions

The best solution for each application

Applications

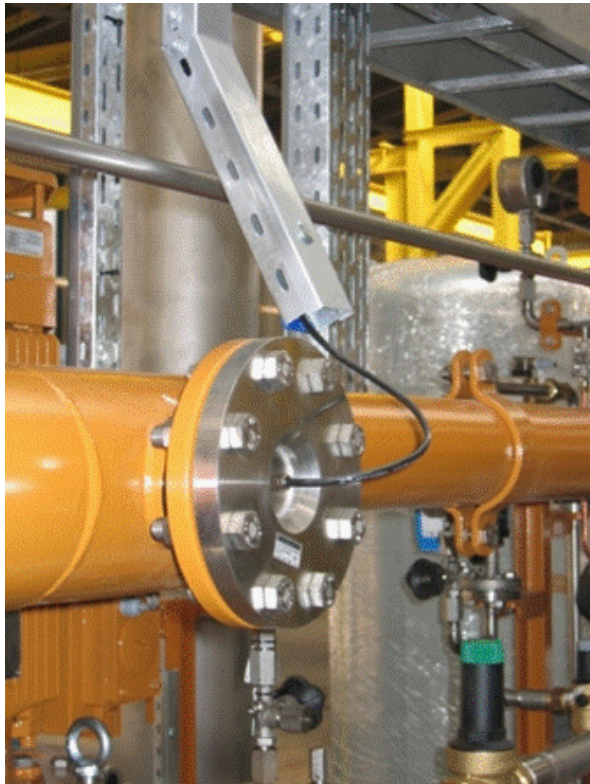

Flange application for emulsions

The best solution for each application

Applications

Flange application for emulsions

Determination of water content in oil or diesel e.g. in oil separator or central lubrication plants

Applications

FMS II installation for controlling of water content in a central lubrication oil plant

